

HIS MAJESTY

Yigdal Chinese Auction 2022

Once there was a king who ruled over vast lands

Opulent palaces, orchards overflowing with luscious fruits and luxurious gardens

One garden in particular was his favorite

All sorts of exotic flowers

Grew in abundance and flourished there

Violets, pansies, lilies, hydrangeas

The most magnificent flowers in the world

In every color of the rainbow

A kaleidoscope of vivid yellows, iridescent blues, dazzling magentas and royal purples

The king would enter the garden to feast his eyes on the beauty and revel in the atmosphere and the intoxicating smells

Once, in passing, he decided to take a walk in his beloved garden

But, as he strolled through the garden gates, he drew back in horror

Shock and consternation

What utter devastation! Chaos reigned in his once pristine garden.

Disarray! Desolation!

“Chop it down,” the king commanded in disgust. “I don’t want to see it again.”

Suddenly, he spotted a lone rose

Lovely in its royalty, regal in its pose

Petals reaching upwards

Away from the menacing thorns that surrounded it

The king was struck by its beauty and resilience

“For the sake of this rose I will spare the entire garden,” the king said.

26 generations from Creation

Hakadosh Boruch Hu witnessed the corruption

The devastation of Dor Enosh, Dor
Hamabul, Dor Haflagah

In His infinite patience Hashem gave them many opportunities to repent and to serve Him

But, when He saw that the nations continued to flout His will, Hashem was ready to destroy the entire world

Until Matan Torah

Hashem offered the Torah to all the nations, but only the Yidden agreed to accept it

Hakadosh Boruch proclaimed

For the sake of the Torah and the Yidden who learn it and keep it I will spare the whole world

What do we owe those who learn the Torah and keep it?

The world.

WEBSITE WILL CLOSE TO ORDERS AT 7:30 PM

Dear Friends,

Welcome to Yigdal Chinese Auction 2022! Due to Covid-19 last year, we created our virtual Chinese Auction 2021 and, B"H, it worked out well. We really expected to go back to our amazing event format this year, but after much deliberation and consultation (and several family and friends sustaining the virus), we decided to be safe and go virtual one more time.

We are continuing our virtual format this year, offering amazing packages of prizes valued at $2000 for the low price of $20 each.

We have tried to include an array of our usual great prizes in a new presentation and we hope that, as you peruse our auction book and website, you will see many wonderful offerings that will be too good to pass up.

We hope you will continue to participate and be reciprocal partners in YIGDAL's work. Together we will assist the Yeshiva Gedolah of Detroit and help to ensure that the Torah learning of the Yeshiva continues. May Hashem look favorably on all our efforts.

Together with the Roshei Yeshiva, the rebbeim and the talmidim of the Yeshiva Gedolah, we thank you.

YIGDAL, Yeshiva Gedolah Ladies, is the women's organization affiliated with the Yeshiva Gedolah Ateres Mordechai of Greater Detroit.

Founded over thirty years ago by a group of mothers and wives of Yeshiva Gedolah Bais Medrash, Kollel and high school students, YIGDAL's aim has been to improve the daily experiences of their sons and husbands.

While YIGDAL's goal has always been to provide for the needs of the Yeshiva, its administration, rebbeim, teachers and students, our purpose has evolved over the years to being a more significant financial partner with the Yeshiva Gedolah. We assist with the mundane in order to facilitate the spiritual.

The women of YIGDAL work with great dedication to raise the funds with which we assist the Yeshiva Gedolah. We appreciate the opportunity to stand behind the continuous Torah learning that permeates the very walls of the Yeshiva. By participating in the Chinese auction, as well as other activities of YIGDAL, you too are a respected and appreciated partner in the avodas hakodesh of the Yeshiva.
